ROCKY POINT FIRE/EMS BOARD NEWS

All Board members, fire chief, and 6 guests attended the April meeting, where they pledged the flag and approved minutes.

Mike Black covered a lot of financial ground, since he missed the past 2 meetings, but everything balanced and the Board approved the report and bill paying.

Loren reported 2 medical aid calls, 3 traffic accidents, and 1 special service call. Volunteers participated in a total of 63 hours of training,, and Quilt used the Aspen Room 2 days.

Jerry, from the VFA, thanked Mike Igou, Dean Grieb, and Audie Brown for running for Board positions in the upcoming election. Greg Sullivan says the BBQ planning is on track, and everyone should make sure to mark July 18th on calendars and attend. There’ll even be train rides for children this year!

Old business began with details on the successful pump test, which OSHA required. Loren is moving on with permits and approvals for the new fuel tank, which is being supported with a $3,000 grant and $7,000 from Quilt.

Loren presented a short version of the equipment plan, requested by the Board the previous month. Of importance is a diesel pickup truck to replace the current gas model, as well as a second engine. No decision was made, but investigation into both items will continue.

New stuff included the May budget meeting and the reminder that Loren’s contract is up as of June 30th, when he will hand the department over to a new fire chief.

Parting announcements consisted of announcement of a 6:30 executive meeting in May, preceding the official meeting, to speak with applicants for the fire chief position. Mata is writing a FEMA grant to help fund a generator. Quilt raffle tickets are available for this year’s project, with proceeds to go toward funding rescue air bags. Drawing will take place at the October Fall Festival..

Join the Board at any of its monthly meetings, 2nd Tuesday of every month, 7 PM, Aspen Room.

Complete & official minutes available at Fire Hall, 356-2205. This Institution is an equal opportunity provider.

ARE YOU READY FOR THE BBQ?

If not, start saving goodies for the flea market, hunting out recipes for the bake sale, and contacting people to see how you can help.

Greg Sullivan – 356-0920, dude in charge, who thanks everyone who attended the Sullivan hot dog fest and signed up already to help at the BBQ.

Dee Sullivan – 356-0920, bake sale

Loren Head – 356-2205, auction

Annie Wicklund – 356-2226, flea market

Dean Grieb – 356-0909, grillmaster

Eileen Oswald – 356-0945, kitchen queen

Jerry Higgins – 356-2455, parade marshall

Christy McLaren – 892-5961, vendors

Flyers are available for posting in places you frequent, and an electronic version can be sent to people who might need reminding.

Whatever your choice of participation, make sure you come on July 18th to support the most important fund raiser our volunteer fire department hosts every year. Plus it's a way fun way to spend a summer day.

RUNNIN' AROUND

Mostly we've been welcoming snow birds as they dribble back to the home grounds. A special welcome to Tony Bixler who has decided to make his Rocky Point vacation spot his home.

Blacks struck out for Arizona, at the peak of heat, to visit an old friend. Of course they explored lots, including a jaunt to Rocky Point, Mexico. Myrna Feliciello left Jerry on his own so she could attend a special ceremony in El Paso for military son Tony, link up with a flock of other relatives, and reconnect with an old friend. And Rusts returned to the Illinois homeland for a wedding. McIntoshes returned from Las Vegas, with stories about overpriced beer.

OUT AND ABOUT

Don't just sit there, get out and enjoy a whole bunch of stuff within an hour's drive.

GENERAL HOSPITAL

Welcome home to Marcia Seyvertsen, who hung out in Medford at the hospital, mainly working jigsaw puzzles with pieces missing.

CONDOLENCES

This newsletter will be a lot better when we don't even have to include this heading. However, several people suffered deaths of loved ones this month. John Wilson's father passed away, as did the mothers to Clay Williams and Diana Newdall. The Cassadys lost their daughter-in-law, obviously way too early in her life. Rocky Point also lost one of its own, Ed Jones. Our sympathies to family and friends.

FROM THE READERS

Congratulations to Frank & Marie Wryn, who welcomed their first great granddaughter on April 21st. Lillyanne Marie Heston is undoubtedly the cutest baby girl out there.

Bill & LoEtta Cadman made their farewells to our community, where they've lived for many years. Certainly we wish them well in their new home, where living will undoubtedly be much easier for them. Keep in touch with them at:

Countryside Retirement Village
1716 Kellenbeck Ave #4
Grants Pass, OR 97527
Phone: 541-956-2363

Don't forget to pick up quilt raffle tickets. They make great gifts, and this year's project is a real beauty! Stop by the Aspen Room any Tuesday morning to see the work in progress and visit with the stitchers. Then talk to Loren about how funds from this annual labor have benefitted the fire department.

Oh, and be ever mindful that Doris Dandurand has sold the winning ticket twice.

EVERYONE IS INVITED

To join the Dandurands in spreading Ed's ashes during a farewell ceremony in the marsh.
