ROCKY POINT FIRE/EMS BOARD NEWS

Three Board members, Fire Chief, and 1 guest attended the September meeting. After the preliminaries, Mike went over the money matters and was given the approval to pay the bills.

Fire Chief reported 16 calls for the previous month—7 lightning strikes/smoke checks, 3 MVAs with transport, 1 special service, 2 medical aids with transport, and 1 medical aid without transport. Volunteers participated in 61 hours of scheduled training.

Aspen Room had 6 days' use. Secretary received an IRS letter regarding the name change of the department to Rocky Point Fire/EMS.

Old business reviewed the fuel tank project, with it progressing. Fire Chief has received his new credit card. ODOT approved boundary signs, and installation instructions are on the way. Wording may have to be revised on the Aspen Room use policy. The Board will review and possibly revise wording next meeting when all members are present.

With no new business, everyone was reminded of the Fire Defense Board meeting in Rocky Point on Sept. 24th.

Adjournment followed a reminder that everyone is welcome to attend board meetings, every 2nd Tuesday of the month, 7 PM, Aspen room. Complete & official minutes available at Fire Hall, 356-2205. This Institution is an equal opportunity provider.

ABOUT THE FALL FESTIVAL

How could it be any better! A gorgeous Fall day in Rocky Point, with lots of happy people eating, shopping, and visiting, oh and getting flu shots.

The 8th annual Fall Festival also generated funds for a wide variety of good causes. First, the quilt raffle proceeds of over $1500 will help fund air rescue bags for the fire department. The additional almost $3000 from the meal, baked goods, and bazaar will be used to support other items our volunteer agency may need along the way, as well as community projects.

Without the unselfish help from a huge pot of people from the community, this event could never enjoy the success it does. Thank you to everyone who baked, glued, set up, took down, stirred, scooped, wiped, changed money, sautéed, shopped, bagged, numbered, and attended. You are indeed special people.

COME TO THE TOWN HALL MEETING

Klamath County Commissioners have scheduled a town hall meeting for Rocky Point residents and property owners on Monday, Nov. 2nd, 7 PM, Aspen Room. In an effort to address concerns from outlying areas, they're prepared to collect input and answer questions we might have.

The agenda is for meeting attendees to determine, so come prepared with issues important to you.

IT'S LADIES' HOLIDAY LUNCHEON TIME!

That's right, it's time for all the women folk and their friends and neighbors to get together and kick off the holiday season. Thanks to organized Rita Donato, the potluck will take place Wednesday, Dec. 2nd, 11 AM, Aspen Room.

Pull out your great recipes and come armed for the potluck with an appetizer, salad, main dish, side dish, or dessert. Table service, wine, and coffee will be provided.

Anybody who would like to help Rita decorate, plan, or become creative should give her a call at 356-2233. Otherwise, see you at yet another wonderful annual Rocky Point event.

IT'S SHOEBOX TIME!

Again this year, Quilt is teaming up with the Girl Scouts to give shoeboxes filled with gifts to foster children throughout Klamath County. We welcome your donations of items children of all ages might enjoy, ones small enough to fit in a shoebox. Or cash donations will be added to the pot for gift cards to include in the boxes.

Contributions and empty shoeboxes will be accepted Tuesday mornings at the Aspen Room until November 17th. Or call Mata (356-2236).

RUNNIN' AROUND

As usual, people just couldn't stay put, in spite of living in paradise. Florence Nelson motored herself to Idaho to hang out with her son. Danforths and Feliciellos took a break from life demands for a relaxing outing at the coast. Jerry & Myrna returned home long enough to trim the iris, then loaded the motorhome for a birthday trip to Sacramento.

Dan & Meridel headed south to the couples baby shower for their pending grandbaby, where they outwitted the younger and more agile couples by winning the dance contest. Blacks didn't really want to go anywhere (yea, right!), but they got this new RV and had to try it out, in the vicinity of the Cowboy Dinner Tree, where dinner was a must. After a few days back at home, it was off to Baker City to visit friends.

Scott and Nancy returned to stomping grounds in Montana. And then there was the near-home, trailer-trash outing at Joseph H. Stewart State Park. Wicklunds, Griebes, Mike Black, and VanHulzens camped the days away, only to be joined by Swansons and Rusts, who day tripped to the event. Heads returned to Eureka, on the pretense of planning a 50th class reunion. However it sounds like the party to plan the party became a group 65th birthday party. Mirandas got their gambling fix, this time in Lake Tahoe.

As if Fall colors around here aren't enough, several folks headed east for that geography's display and its related points of interest. Ziemers and Zemans left at different times for different destinations along the eastern seaboard, where visits with special people and unique sights were on the agenda. Even though Sharon Sligar's name doesn't begin with a Z, she too visited D. C., Arlington, Alexandria, and Georgetown. She says it was a short week, with lots of free stuff to see and awesome public transportation for getting to it all.

Rusts didn't make it that far east, but it was still a great trip to Indiana, celebrating an anniversary and milestone birthdays with lots of past-life friends and relatives.

The big kahuna travel award goes to the McIntoshes this month— A week near San Diego, 15 days on a cruise ship through the Panama Canal, and a week in Florida visiting family, going to Disney World, visiting Kennedy Space Center, taking an airboat ride on the Everglades, (yes, we saw lots of alligators) and relaxing. That all adds up to 4 weeks, and they're working on their next trip already!

Not everybody's travel is OUT of Rocky Point. Mike Hiatt's sister Troyce escaped S. California for a week relaxing with friends and relatives in Rocky Point. She summarized the visit with, "The hardest part is leaving my family and going back home; in many ways time stands still here in Rocky Point and that's what makes this place so magnificent to visit. Thanks to everyone who waved and greeted me and Rufus, the Jack Russell Terrier, as we made our morning walks up Rocky Point Road."

OUT AND ABOUT

Lots going on in preparation for the holidays, so check the newspaper for additional events. Only a few are included here. First, keep an eye on the offerings at Ross Ragland Theatre (884-LIVE). Nov. 1 – Klamath Art Gallery Holiday Showcase Opening Reception, 12 – 4.

883-1833.

Nov. 14 – Christmas in the Country. Bazaar, merchant street shopping. Downtown Merrill. 798-5096.

Nov. 20 – Malin Christmas Bazaar, Malin Community Center, 9 AM – 7 PM. 723-2271.

Nov. 20 – 21 – Hosanna Christian School Shepherd's Market, 5000 Hosanna Way. 9 AM – 7 PM. 882-7732.

GENERAL HOSPITAL

Three of our guys visited the surgery quarters this month, and we wish them rapid and complete healing. Jim Blodgett barely finished the busy season at Fish Lake before his operation, and Audie Brown waited until the weather was so lousy he couldn't do anything else to schedule his. Harold Seeley's back will hopefully be much better.

Clarence Young and Dave Epling were also hospital guests.

CONDOLENCES

Sympathies to friends and families this month: The Danforths, following the death of Warren Smith; Alice Ruger, who lost her sister; Scott and Nancy, who will miss long-time canine friend Misha; finally, the old-timers "family" of Lucille Kern, who spent many years in Rocky Point serving food at almost all the area restaurants and gaining real fame for her pies at the old Timber Inn—a warm friend to many of us.

FAMOUS LOCAL QUOTE OF THE MONTH

"It's official! We now have more floor space for birds than we do for people."

--Jerry Feliciello after seeing the birdhouses Myrna bought at the Fall Festival.
